Recommendations for improvement

- It is required to revise the regulations concerning student enrollment, graduation, course completion, and degree awarding. This is because the current regulations acknowledge that the decisions made by the Entrance Examination Board, Faculty Council, or Graduate School Committee are equivalent to the president's final decision.
- In order to comply with Article 93 of the School Education Act, both the Faculty Council Regulation and the Graduate School Committee Regulation need to be revised urgently. The revision of regulations should clearly define how and when the committees express their opinion during the president's decision-making process.
- The function of teaching-learning management should be improved to correspond to Article 93 of the School Education Law. Improvement in the function of internal quality assurance is required as well.
