Good practices

- As a graduate university, the essential basic skills required for advanced research are cultivated; and in its specialist education realizing the university's mission and objectives, collaboration is sought with affiliated research institutions. Its special characteristics as a music performance university are therefore linked in with educational and research activities. These facts are worthy of evaluation.

Recommendations for improvement

- With regard to the expulsion, suspension and warnings stipulated in Article 26 of the Regulation for Enforcement of the School Education Act, the procedures concerning disciplinary action against the students have not been defined. In this respect, improvements are needed.
